This exciting opportunity will take place August 5th—12th 2009, at Camp Samac in Oshawa, Ontario.

The event will be open to Scouts and Venturers, of course, as well as members of L'Association des Scouts du Canada, Girl Guides of Canada, and our International Scouting/Guiding friends.

Registration

The Registration system is presently under development, but it will be ready to accept unit registrations in June of this year—so talk it up, and get ready coz it's first come-first served !

Registration will be in units of 10. Eight youth and 2 registered adults.

The Camp fee is set at $350.00 per participant, and we'll be offering an easy payment plan to assist with budgeting.

Invitation

Scouts and Guides from around the world are invited to join us for eight full and complete days of excitement and activity that will thrill your senses and stimulate your awareness of our rich diversity and long term environmental awareness. Exciting program elements will be chosen by participants from a broad selection of options.

More Information to Come

We don't want to give away too much just yet, but CCJam09 is being developed along the lines of a full Jam packed list of events and other things to do —On and Off-Site Programs; Off-Site Activities that you can register for; evening activities at the central Samac Village, as well as within each sub-camp.

One new idea we'll be offering is to give participants the ability to pre-order and purchase various goodies such as clothing, mugs, crests, pins etc., and these will be delivered to your camp site when you arrive.

The CCJam'09 Web Site is currently under development, and we expect it to go live in Mid-March.
Stay tuned !

Feel free to pass along this newsletter to other Scouters and Guiders who may be interested in hearing more about CCJam'09. They can be added to the mailing list by simply sending an e-mail to ccjam09@rogers.com
